

NAPLIC is the national organisation for professionals who work with children and young people with all types of speech, language and communication needs, including developmental language disorder.

NAPLIC Annual Conference

Sheffield City Hall

21 March 2020

DLD: Moving Forward Together

Evidence-based perspective: Susan Ebbels Director, Moor House School

Education perspective: Jules Daulby Literacy and Inclusion Expert

Public health perspective: James Law University of Newcastle

Commissioning perspective: Marie Gascoigne Better Communication CIC

Sandra and Rachel Capelin

Personal and Family perspectives of Developmental Language Disorder

Aoife Gallagher, University of Limerick

Listening to children and young people with DLD about their optimal supports in school.

Trish Hicken, Specialist Teacher, Lincolnshire

The DLD Together Parent Project

Caroline Rowland, Max Planck Institute, Netherlands

How to support children's language in the early years

Other speakers will outline:

- ◆ Practical examples of how teachers and therapists can work together to support students with DLD across key stages
- ◆ DLD diagnostic issues

Parent rate £50 Full rate £195

Details: www.naplic.org.uk/conferences

Special rate: www.naplic.org.uk/product/naplic-conference-2020-special-rate/